

Lawrence B. Bailey

Lawrence B. Bailey is Senior Vice-President, Secretary/Treasurer and a founder of MetaJure, Inc.

Larry has practiced law for over 40 years. He retired as a partner from Preston Gates & Ellis, now known as K&L Gates, in 2005.

While at Preston, Larry chaired the Business Department, as well as the Real Estate Department of the firm. He was the managing attorney for the firm's largest client, Microsoft Corporation, for 18 years. Larry provided advice and worked with its general counsel and legal department in directing the efforts of over 200 outside attorneys and staff.

Larry has a broad range of management and legal experience in all aspects of the law and continues to consult with his other clients.

Larry has served as general counsel of a number of private companies in the Northwest and has chaired the board of directors of a major northwest retail sales company. He has been an officer or chair of numerous local, state and national bar association sections and committees. Larry has been a leader in many professional, civic, and community organizations.

Larry is a graduate of Dartmouth College, received his JD from the University of Illinois, and was awarded the Distinguished Alumnus Award in 2007.