

JOE ROSE

Jose Rose is a Director of MetaJure, Inc.

Joe serves as Managing Director for Rosetta Partners, LLC, which provides investment capital and executive support for companies serving selected markets with information management, technology and professional services. Joe is also a member of the board of directors at Kofax plc.

Joe previously served as Executive Vice President & Chief Operating Officer and Director for SOURCECORP, Inc., a provider of business process outsourcing and consulting services. Joe also served on SOURCECORP's Executive Committee. Prior to joining SOURCECORP, Joe was Director, President and CEO of FormMaker Software, Inc., which provided document automation software and document management services. FormMaker subsequently was merged into DocuCorp, Inc. Joe also held executive management positions with The JH Harland Company as Senior Vice President of Information Services Business, Executive Vice President of Financial Information Services at National Data Corporation, and General Manager of the Telecommunications Information Business Group at GTE-Data Services Inc. Joe began his information technology and services career as a Sales Executive for Facilities Management at Electronic Data Systems.

More recently, Joe served as Director for Attenex Corporation, a privately held company offering e-discovery technology and services, until its acquisition by FTI Consulting in July 2008. Joe also served as Director for People Support, Inc., an international business process outsourcer, until it was acquired by the Essar Group in November 2008, and was on the board of Captiva Software, Inc., an enterprise content management company, until its merger with EMC in January 2006.

Joe has served on the boards of directors of Formation Technologies, Inc., Market Profiles Inc. and Identitech, Inc.

Joe received his BA from Texas Tech University and his Director Education Program Certification from UCLA's Anderson School of Management.